

Empty HI 5¢ glass bottles are redeemed at a reverse vending machine or redemption center

Local recycling companies semi-crush the glass

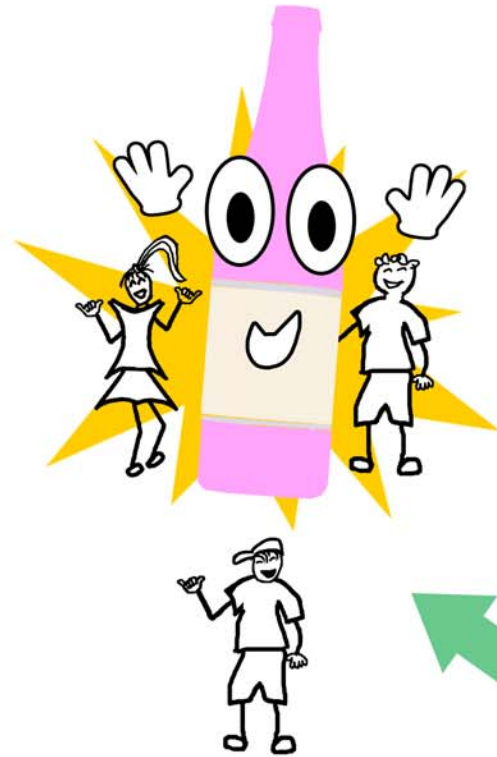

Glass is further crushed by local companies

The crushed glass is used as gasphalt pavement locally

New bottles are made and filled!

Mainland companies further crush and melt down the glass

The crushed glass is shipped to the mainland

